

INTERACT

NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 2024

to the October 2024 release of the INTERACT newsletter!

This newsletter aims to keep you up to date with the latest developments of the study and key information you may need.

The study is looking at an intervention to support communication skills in children and young people with Profound and Multiple Learning Disabilities (PMLD).

Follow our  page to receive updates about the study!

We are very grateful to all Educational Settings taking part in the 2023-2024 phase of the INTERACT study, your contribution to this important area of research is hugely appreciated. We appreciate the questionnaires and videos that you were able to return.

"We appreciate all the time and energy you, your team and the children and young people have put in to providing us with the INTERACT videos. It is a real privilege for the team at Kent to view the wonderful relationships and interactions between staff and children. Thank you for your ongoing commitment and involvement in the INTERACT study."

- Professor Jill Bradshaw & Joanne Sweeney
(University of Kent)

We are pleased to share that we have recruited further educational settings for the 2024-2025 phase of the study.

NEXT STEPS FOR SETTINGS

We will be contacting you again in November 2024 about completing the final questionnaires and videos for the study. We are so grateful for your ongoing support.

We will contact parents/carers separately about their final questionnaire.

Your setting will receive £350 after completing the final follow-up (Nov-Dec 2024)!

Educational Settings that have not yet received Intensive Interaction training will be offered this after completing the final follow up.

YOU SAID, WE DID

We really appreciate interventionists who took part in an interview about their experience of taking part in the study. This information was extremely helpful to us and will be used to improve study processes and intervention training resources for those taking part in the next phases of INTERACT.
